

Heavy Duty Floor Protection Moving Skates

The transport dollies are generally used in industrial areas. These transporting machines are very simple to move large machines.

Product Overview

Industrial Machinery Moving Solutions

These heavy-duty floor protection moving skates are designed to facilitate the efficient transport of large machinery in industrial environments. Engineered for durability and ease of use, these skates operate without the need for water, electricity, or oil, making them an environmentally friendly choice for your facility. With a versatile range of capacities, they provide a reliable, cost-effective method for moving heavy loads while protecting your flooring surfaces.

Performance Specifications

Power Requirements

Manual Operation • No Electricity Needed • No Oil Required • No Water Required

Capacity Range

1.5 tons

Min Capacity

1000 tons

Max Capacity

Minimum Capacity

1.5 tons

Maximum Capacity

1000 tons

Product Types

Available Configurations

- Steerable machinery skates
- Mounted roller skids
- Rotating moving dollies
- Veered moving skates