

Hexagon Crimping Tool for Network Connectors

This hexagon crimping tool is designed for network applications. It provides a secure and reliable crimp for various connectors and terminals, and comes with various dies for different sizes of terminals.

Product Overview

Professional Hydraulic Crimping Solution

The CPO-300 is a heavy-duty hydraulic crimping tool engineered for secure and reliable network connector installations. Featuring a robust hexagon crimping mechanism and an integrated safety system, it ensures consistent performance for professional applications. This comprehensive kit includes a durable steel carrying case and a full set of crimping dies, making it an essential tool for network maintenance and infrastructure projects.

Technical Specifications

Crimping Force

16 T

Crimping Force

Crimping Type

Hexagon

Crimping Range

16-300 mm²

Stroke

20 mm

Physical Attributes

Tool Length

500 mm

Tool Weight

6.8 kg

Case Weight

3.3 kg

Package Type

Steel case

Accessories

Included Dies

- 16
- 25
- 35
- 50
- 70
- 95
- 120
- 150
- 185
- 240
- 300