

High Definition Surveillance Camera with Variable Focal Length

This high-definition video camera is designed for automatic detecting and recording systems. It features a variable focal length lens (f/1.4 - 10mm) for versatile image capture and is enclosed in a durable housing.

Product Overview

High Definition Surveillance Solution

This high-definition surveillance camera is engineered for reliable automatic detecting and recording systems. Featuring a versatile variable focal length lens, it provides flexible image capture capabilities suitable for diverse security environments. The unit is housed in a durable casing, making it an ideal choice for integration into professional emergency and security lighting infrastructures.

Optical Specifications

Focal Length Range

1.4 f/

Minimum Aperture/Focal

10 mm

Maximum Focal Length

Available Focal Settings

- 4
- 6
- 8
- 10

Application & Build

Housing Durability

Durable Housing

Primary Applications

Security Systems, Surveillance, Emergency Lighting Integration, Automatic Recording