

High-Magnification Binoculars

These binoculars are designed for viewing distant objects with high magnification. Their dual-lens configuration enhances depth perception and clarity, and they are constructed with durable materials for reliable performance.

Overview

Professional Optical Performance

These high-magnification binoculars are engineered for exceptional clarity and depth perception when viewing distant objects. Constructed with robust, durable materials, they provide reliable performance in diverse environmental conditions. Featuring adjustable focus and interpupillary distance, this instrument ensures a comfortable and customized viewing experience for every professional user.

Key Features

Ideal Applications	Birdwatching, Stargazing, Surveillance, Outdoor Activities
Optical Configuration	Dual-lens system for enhanced depth perception

Construction

Build Quality
Durable Construction • All-Weather Reliable

User Adjustments

- Adjustable Settings
- Manual Focus
 - Interpupillary Distance