

High-Speed Currency Counter with Counterfeit Detection

This high-speed currency counter accurately and efficiently processes cash. It is equipped with counterfeit detection, batch counting, and error detection features.

Overview

Professional Currency Handling

The BJ-2120 is a high-speed money counter designed for accurate and efficient cash processing in demanding environments. This device streamlines currency handling for banks, retail businesses, and financial institutions. Equipped with advanced counterfeit detection, batch counting, and error detection capabilities, it ensures reliable and secure operations for your daily cash management needs.

Core Features

Key Capabilities	High-Speed Counting, Counterfeit Detection, Batch Counting, Error Detection
Model	BJ-2120