

Hinges and Bolts Hardware Set

This hardware set includes hinges and bolts. These components are essential for securing doors, windows and other structural elements.

Product Overview

Professional Construction Hardware Set

This hardware set includes a selection of essential construction components, specifically featuring hinges and bolts. Designed for durability and reliability, these items are suitable for various construction and woodworking applications. The components are crafted from high-quality metal, ensuring robust performance in securing doors and structural elements.

Technical Details

Typical Applications

- Construction projects
- Woodworking
- Door installation
- Structural securing

Material Finish	Brass-tone metal
Included Components	Hinges, Bolts