

Hood and Trunk Opener Locking Clamp

This locking clamp is designed for securely holding hood and trunk openers in place. Featuring a T-handle for easy adjustment, it provides a hands-free solution for automotive repair and maintenance.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Locking Clamp

This locking clamp is an essential tool for automotive maintenance, designed specifically to secure hood and trunk openers when gas springs fail or are not functioning correctly. Its robust design allows for precise positioning, ensuring safety and hands-free operation during repair tasks. Built for durability and ease of use, this clamp is a reliable solution for professional automotive service environments.

Technical Specifications

Maximum Opening Width	10 mm
Primary Applications	Hood Openers, Trunk Openers, Gas Spring Repair, Automotive Maintenance

Design Features

Available Finishes

Blue Anodized • Red Anodized

Adjustment Mechanism	T-handle with threaded rod
----------------------	----------------------------