

Hospital Building

This is a multi-story hospital building designed to provide comprehensive healthcare services. The facility features a modern facade and a prominent entrance.

Project Overview

Hospital Building Overview

This facility is a modern healthcare structure designed to serve as a children's hospital in Sri Lanka. It features a multi-story architectural design characterized by a prominent entrance canopy and an efficient, contemporary facade. The building is positioned within an active environment, providing essential infrastructure for comprehensive pediatric medical services.

Geographic Context

Sri Lanka

Design and Architecture

Structure Type

Multi-story hospital complex

Design Features

Modern facade, Entrance canopy, Blue framework supports