

Household Space Heater with Safety Grill

This space heater is designed for household use, providing warmth in small to medium rooms. It features a circular heating element and a safety grill.

Product Overview

Compact Household Heating Solution

The Sun Heater 1681A is a specialized space heating apparatus engineered for residential environments. It features a circular heating element enclosed behind a protective safety grill to ensure secure operation during use. Designed for localized warmth, this unit is an ideal choice for heating small to medium-sized rooms efficiently.

Technical Specifications

Design Characteristics	Circular heating element, Safety grill, Integrated control buttons, Yellow plastic base
Usage Environment	Household use, suitable for small to medium-sized rooms