

Industrial Power Distribution Box

This distribution box is designed to house and protect electrical components. It features a robust enclosure with a secure locking mechanism for reliable power distribution in industrial and commercial applications.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Industrial Power Distribution Enclosure

This robust industrial power distribution box is engineered to provide secure housing and protection for sensitive electrical and electronic components. Designed for durability in demanding environments, the enclosure features a high-quality painted finish and a reliable, secure locking mechanism. It comes fully equipped with essential installation accessories, making it a comprehensive solution for organized and safe power distribution in industrial and commercial settings.

Technical Specifications

Protection Degree

IP65 • NEMA 4

Compliance Standard

EN60 529

Design & Finish

Body & Door Color

RAL 7032

Mounting Plate Finish

RAL 2004 (Smooth)

Included Components

Package Contents

- Mounting plate
- Gland plate and gasket
- Wall fixing brackets
- Mounting screws
- Locking round bar key