

Interlock Bed Frame Connector

These high-strength connectors are designed for secure and reliable bed frame assembly. The metal connectors feature interlocking tabs to enhance stability and ease of use for various bed frame materials and designs.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

High-Strength Bed Frame Integration

The Interlock Bed Frame Connector is a professional-grade hardware solution engineered for secure and reliable bed frame assembly. Constructed from durable, high-strength metal, this connector utilizes an interlocking tab design to provide superior stability and structural integrity. It is suitable for a wide range of bed frame materials and designs, making it an excellent choice for both residential furniture manufacturing and commercial hospitality applications.

Technical Specifications

Material	Durable Metal
Connection Mechanism	Interlocking Tabs

Usage & Applications

Key Performance Indicators

1 High Stability Rating	1 Easy Ease of Assembly
-----------------------------------	-----------------------------------

Recommended Applications	Residential, Commercial, Hospitality
--------------------------	--------------------------------------