

KVM Extender 200m with DDC2B

The Combo KVM Extender 200M extends video and USB, PS2 keyboard/mouse signals up to 200 meters to a remote monitor or projector. Built-in signal enhancement ensures optimal video and keyboard/mouse performance.

Overview

Extended Control Solution

This Combo KVM Extender enables remote control of a source computer from distances up to 200 meters. It supports video, USB, and PS2 keyboard/mouse signals, ensuring seamless interaction with remote monitors or projectors. With built-in signal enhancement technology, users can maintain high-quality video resolution and reliable input control, making it an ideal solution for remote computer management.

Technical Specifications

Maximum Extension Distance	200 m
Supported Interfaces	USB, PS2 Keyboard, PS2 Mouse, Video
Signal Enhancement	Yes

Features

Display Configuration

DDC2B Support

Key Benefits

- Remote computer management up to 200m
- Optimized video resolution quality
- Supports both USB and PS2 peripherals
- Automatic display configuration via DDC2B