

Line Array Subwoofer for Sound Reinforcement

This line array subwoofer is designed for professional sound reinforcement applications. It features a robust enclosure with integrated rigging hardware for flown or ground-stacked configurations.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Line Array Subwoofer

The ML-2182 is a high-performance, dual 18-inch passive subwoofer engineered for professional sound reinforcement. Designed with precision mechanics and high-quality imported components, it delivers deep, impactful low-frequency response suitable for large-scale events and concert halls. The robust, weather-resistant enclosure features an adjustable aluminum alloy rigging system, ensuring reliable performance and flexible deployment in any professional audio setup.

Technical Specifications

Performance

18 inch
Driver Size

2 units
Driver Count

Configuration

Dual 18-inch passive 2-way line array

Construction & Materials

Hardware

- Stainless steel screws
- Rust-proof spray-treated rail network
- Aluminum alloy rigging system

Enclosure Material

High-strength Russian plywood

Finish

Wear-resisting waterproof paint

Rigging & Installation

Rigging System	Patent aluminum alloy condole hang combination
Adjustable Angle	10 degrees

Quality & Compliance

Certifications	CE
----------------	----