

Machinery Faceplates

These faceplates are designed for use in food and beverage processing machinery. They provide a durable and smooth surface for various machine functions.

Product Overview

Industrial Machinery Faceplates

These professional-grade white faceplates are designed for integration into industrial machinery control panels and housing systems. Available in both square and rectangular configurations, they offer a clean, durable interface solution for equipment manufacturers. The components feature standardized mounting designs to ensure seamless installation in diverse industrial environments.

Technical Specifications

Available Models

Model Code	Type
SC1017	120 Type (Square)
SC1018	146 Type (Rectangular)

Finish and Material	White Finish, Rigid Construction, Smooth Surface
Mounting Features	Yes