

Manual Pasta Maker with Adjustable Rollers

This manual pasta maker is constructed with stainless steel, ensuring durability and hygiene. It features adjustable rollers to easily change pasta thicknesses and a detachable handle allowing for compact storage.

Product Overview

Professional Manual Pasta Maker

This manual pasta maker is designed for durability and hygiene, constructed from high-quality stainless steel. It features adjustable rollers that allow for precise control over pasta thickness, making it versatile for various culinary needs. With its detachable handle and secure countertop clamp, it offers both compact storage and stable operation, ideal for small-scale food production environments.

Technical Specifications

Construction Material	Stainless steel
Roller Adjustability	Yes
Mounting Mechanism	Countertop clamp

Design Features

Design Highlights	Detachable handle, Compact storage, Stable base
-------------------	---

Usage

Recommended Use

Home use • Small-scale production