

Mattock Pick Hoe with Adze Blade

This mattock pick hoe is a versatile hand tool for digging, chopping, and prying. It features a sturdy head with an adze blade for cutting roots and a pointed pick for breaking up hard soil.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Versatile Excavation Tool

The mattock pick hoe is a robust hand tool engineered for heavy-duty digging, chopping, and prying tasks. Featuring a dual-ended head, it combines a broad adze blade for efficient root and turf cutting with a pointed pick end for breaking through hard soil and rocky terrain. Constructed from hardened steel, this tool is built for durability and reliable performance in demanding landscaping, gardening, and construction environments.

Technical Specifications

Ideal Applications

- Digging
- Chopping roots
- Removing turf
- Breaking hard soil
- Prying rocks

Material	Hardened Steel
Head Features	Adze Blade, Pointed Pick, Oval Eye