

Metal Shovel with D-Grip Handle

This shovel is a robust tool designed for digging and moving materials. It features a D-grip handle for enhanced control and is suitable for gardening, landscaping, and construction.

Product Overview

Robust Metal Digging Tool

The SS501MJ is a heavy-duty shovel designed for demanding environments, ranging from landscaping to construction sites. It features a high-durability metal construction that provides excellent soil penetration and efficient material handling. The ergonomic D-grip handle ensures superior control, reducing operator fatigue during prolonged use.

Physical Attributes

Construction Material	Durable metal
Handle Design	D-grip

Usage & Applications

Suitable Applications	Gardening, Landscaping, Construction, Heavy-duty digging
-----------------------	--

Key Features

Performance Metrics

1 D-grip Ergonomic handle	1 Robust metal build
-------------------------------------	--------------------------------