

Metalworking Belt Sander for Shaping and Finishing

This metalworking belt sander is designed for shaping and finishing metal parts. It features a robust construction with a stable base, powerful motor, and adjustable sanding belt.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Industrial Metalworking Belt Sander

This high-performance belt sander is engineered for precise metal shaping, deburring, and finishing applications. Built with a robust structure for stability, it features a powerful motor delivering 2800rpm for consistent material removal. Designed for safety and efficiency, the machine includes overload protection, a dedicated dust extraction outlet, and an adjustable tilting head to accommodate various working heights.

Performance

Motor Speed

2800 rpm
Rotational Speed

Dust Extraction Outlet

100 mm

Features

Key Features

- Quick change belt system
- Swallow tail tracking structure
- Tilting head for adjustable working height
- Overload protection
- Stand included

Safety Features

Overload Protection, Protective Guard, Emergency Stop