

MF 100 Commuter Motorcycle

The MF 100 Montana is a practical and economical motorcycle designed for everyday transportation. It features a reliable engine, a comfortable seat, and a durable frame.

Overview

Designed for Daily Efficiency

The MF 100 Montana is a practical and economical motorcycle engineered specifically for reliable everyday transportation. With its durable frame and comfortable ergonomics, it is an ideal solution for urban commuting and short-distance travel. The design prioritizes utility, featuring integrated storage solutions to support daily tasks.

Key Features

Storage Features

- Front basket for small items
- Rear rack for larger loads

Design Highlights

Economical • Durable Frame • Comfortable Seat

Primary Use Cases

Urban Commuting, Short-distance Travel, Daily Transportation