

Microporous Protective Coverall

This microporous overall provides full body protection in environments where exposure to particulate matter, light liquid splashes, and certain hazardous substances is possible. Constructed from a lightweight, breathable microporous film laminate, it offers a balance of protection and comfort.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Microporous Protective Coverall

This microporous coverall is designed to provide a reliable barrier against particulate matter and light liquid splashes in professional environments. Constructed from a lightweight, breathable microporous film laminate, it effectively balances safety with comfort to minimize heat stress during extended wear. Featuring a hooded design with elasticated cuffs and ankles, this garment ensures a secure fit suitable for industries ranging from healthcare and pharmaceutical manufacturing to general maintenance and cleaning services.

Technical Specifications

Material Weight

25 g/m²

Minimum Weight

65 g/m²

Maximum Weight

Available Colors

White, Blue, Green, Dark Green

Design & Features

Design Options

- Hooded design
- Elasticated or knitted cuffs
- Front zipper closure
- Optional waist elastic
- Optional pockets
- Optional shoe covers

Compliance & Safety

Safety Standards

Type 3 • Type 4 • Type 5 • Type 6