

Mobile Phone Repair Tooling Fixture

This specialized tool is designed for precise manipulation during mobile phone repair. It features a combination of metallic and plastic components, including a clamping mechanism.

Overview

Precision Mobile Repair Fixture

This specialized tooling fixture is engineered for the precise manipulation and processing of small components during mobile phone assembly or repair. Featuring a robust mechanical design with a multi-colored clamping system, it provides the stability required for intricate repair tasks. It is an essential tool for professional technicians looking to improve accuracy and efficiency in their repair workflows.

Technical Details

Primary Application

Mobile Phone Repair • Mechanical Assembly • Precision Component Handling

Series

W.Kse Series

Construction Materials

Metallic, Plastic