

Motorcycle Disc Brake Rotor Lock

This motorcycle disc lock provides robust theft protection. It is constructed with hardened steel and a protective coating.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

High-Security Motorcycle Protection

This high-security disc brake rotor lock is engineered to provide robust theft protection for motorcycles and scooters. Constructed with a hardened steel locking mechanism and a durable, corrosion-resistant protective coating, it ensures long-lasting reliability in various environmental conditions. The compact and lightweight design allows for convenient storage and transport, making it an essential security accessory for daily commuting and asset protection.

Technical Specifications

Included Accessories

- Security Cable
- Key Locking Mechanism

Material Construction

Hardened Steel

Security Features

Hardened Steel Mechanism, Corrosion Resistant, Weather Resistant Coating

Market Availability

Primary Markets

South America • Colombia • Peru • Brazil • Argentina • Bolivia • Guatemala • Uruguay • Paraguay • India • Bengal • Algeria