

Motorcycle Rear Fork for FT150

This motorcycle rear fork is designed for the FT150 model. It provides reliable support and contributes to a smooth and safe riding experience.

Product Overview

High-Performance Rear Fork

This durable motorcycle rear fork is engineered to deliver superior stability and performance for the FT150 model. Constructed from high-strength steel with a sleek black finish, it is built to withstand rigorous riding conditions. The design includes integrated foot pegs with textured grips to enhance rider comfort and control, while precision mounting points ensure straightforward installation and broad compatibility.

Technical Specifications

Material	High-strength steel
Finish	Black
Compatible Model	FT150

Features

Key Features	Integrated foot pegs, Textured grips, High-strength construction, Easy installation
--------------	---