

Motorcycle Rim Alignment Tool

This is a specialized machine designed for the precise alignment of motorcycle rims. The robust and durable machine incorporates a multi-point clamping system to securely hold the rim in place during the alignment process.

Product Overview

Precision Wheel Alignment

The ZCQ01(G) is a specialized machine designed for the precise alignment of motorcycle rims. Featuring a robust, heavy-duty construction, it ensures stability and high accuracy for professional wheel maintenance. This essential tool for repair shops incorporates a multi-point clamping system and adjustable supports, making it suitable for a wide variety of rim sizes and types.

Design and Build

Construction

Heavy-duty steel construction for enhanced stability

Technical Features

Adjustment Capabilities

- Adjustable supports
- Integrated precision gauges
- Versatile rim size compatibility

Clamping Mechanism

Multi-point clamping system for secure rim retention

Applications

Ideal For

Motorcycle Repair Shops, Wheel Maintenance Facilities, Rim Truing