

Motorcycle Tail Light Assembly with Mounting Bracket

Complete tail light assembly for motorcycles features a bright red lens with a concentric circular design and integrated reflector. It includes a black powder-coated mounting bracket and wiring harness for easy installation.

Product Overview

Universal Motorcycle Tail Light Assembly

This complete motorcycle tail light assembly is designed for reliable performance and easy integration into both replacement projects and custom builds. It features a high-visibility red lens with a distinct concentric circular design and an integrated reflector to ensure safety on the road. The unit comes pre-fitted with a durable, black powder-coated mounting bracket, streamlining the installation process.

Technical Details

Included Components

- Tail light assembly
- Mounting bracket
- Wiring harness

Model ID	TL070
Certifications	CCC

Design & Build

Lens Features

Red lens • Concentric circular design • Integrated reflector

Bracket Finish	Black powder-coated
----------------	---------------------