

Multi-Gang Rocker Wall Switch

This multi-gang rocker wall switch is designed for controlling multiple lighting circuits from a single location. It features a rectangular faceplate with individual rocker switches for easy operation.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Multi-Gang Switching Solutions

The HWB series wall switches are specifically engineered for the Australian market, combining safety with a modern aesthetic. Featuring a pure white panel and flame-retardant housing, these switches offer a versatile solution for residential and commercial electrical control. The full plastic baseboard design ensures structural integrity and resistance to deformation under pressure, providing long-term reliability for your projects.

Technical Specifications

Market Compatibility

Australia

Design Features

- Pure white panel
- Flush-mounted design
- Resistant to deformation under pressure

Housing Material

Flame retardant, Plastic

Baseboard Construction

Full plastic baseboard