

Natural Sisal Fiber Rope

This natural fiber rope is spun from durable sisal fibers. It is suitable for crafting, gardening, marine use, and general purpose tying.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Natural Sisal Fiber Rope

This premium natural fiber rope is derived from the sisal plant, renowned for its excellent strength and resistance to degradation from sunlight and saltwater. Its rough texture provides superior grip and reliable knot-holding performance, making it a versatile choice for both industrial and domestic applications. Being biodegradable and eco-friendly, it serves as a sustainable solution for your heavy-duty tying and securing needs.

Key Features

Material Characteristics

Natural Fiber, Biodegradable, Eco-friendly, Abrasion Resistant, UV Resistant

Applications

Common Industrial & Domestic Uses

- Steel cable support
- Pet rope products
- Marine and nautical use
- Agricultural tying
- Landscaping and gardening
- Decorative rustic crafting

Performance

Key Performance Indicators

100 % Natural Sisal

Material Composition

1 High

Degradation Resistance