

Network Security Firewall

This firewall is designed for network security and access control. It manages and blocks various online activities.

Overview

Comprehensive Network Security Solution

This network security firewall is designed to provide robust protection and granular control over enterprise network traffic. It enables administrators to effectively manage and restrict various online activities, ensuring high productivity and security across the organization. By blocking unauthorized or non-business-related traffic, it helps maintain a secure and focused digital environment.

Traffic Management

Managed Network Activities

- Remote Proxy
- Online Stock Trading
- Instant Messaging
- Online Entertainment
- Online Games
- Online TV/Streaming
- Online Financial Transactions

Security Features

Access Control, Traffic Blocking, Network Management, Policy Enforcement