

Non-Contact Infrared Body Thermometer

This is a non-contact infrared thermometer for measuring body temperature. It features a digital display and stores temperature records.

Overview

Professional Non-Contact Infrared Thermometer

This non-contact infrared thermometer is designed for rapid and accurate body temperature measurement. Its handheld scanner design ensures convenient, hygienic operation, making it ideal for professional settings. The device includes a clear digital display and user-friendly controls for setting preferences and reviewing stored temperature records.

Technical Specifications

Model Number	GP-300
Measurement Type	Non-contact Infrared
Supported Units	°C, °F

Features

Key Features

- Rapid temperature reading
- Non-contact operation
- Digital display
- Temperature record storage
- Intuitive control buttons (Set, +, -)

Performance Metrics

36.3 °C

Typical Reading