

Non-Contact Infrared Thermometer for Body Temperature Measurement

This non-contact infrared thermometer is designed for measuring body temperature. It features a digital display and multiple buttons for mode selection and settings.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Overview

Professional Non-Contact Infrared Thermometer

This non-contact infrared thermometer is designed for rapid and hygienic body temperature measurement. By simply holding the device, pressing the trigger, and aiming the laser guide at the forehead, users can obtain instant temperature readings. It is an ideal solution for schools, customs, hospitals, and other public environments requiring efficient health screening.

Device Details

Medical Device Class

Class II

Model Number

SPIT002

Power Supply

Internal power supply equipment

Key Features

Core Functions

- Instant digital display
- Memory function
- Multiple mode selection
- Ergonomic handheld design

Measurement Method

Non-contact, Infrared, Laser-guided

Compliance

Certifications

CE Qualified