

Non-Linear Video Editing System

This high-definition non-linear editing system supports various media formats, including TS stream, PS stream and FLV. It offers comprehensive media file support for professional video production.

System Overview

Professional Non-Linear Editing System

The Himalaya series is a high and standard definition non-linear editing system engineered to support a wide array of rich media formats. Designed for professional workflows, it offers comprehensive file compatibility, including direct ingestion of media files from major industry devices. With a focus on stability and efficiency, the system features an intuitive interface and advanced software engineering for a seamless editing experience.

Compatibility & Support

Compatible Device Formats

- Sony media files
- Panasonic media files
- Ikegami media files

Supported Media Formats

TS stream, PS stream, 3GP, FLV

System Performance

Key Performance Areas

High Definition Support • Standard Definition Support • High Stability • Efficient Workflow