

Office Automation Software with Collaborative Management Tools

This office automation software facilitates multi-departmental collaboration and attendance management. It provides data backup, security features, and multi-dimensional reporting.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Smart Collaborative Management

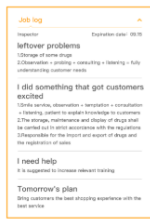

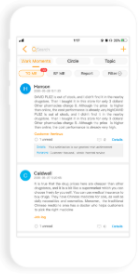

A comprehensive office automation software platform designed to streamline multi-departmental collaboration and management. It provides robust tools for attendance tracking, data security, and internal communications, specifically tailored for chain businesses and retail operations. The solution ensures business stability and efficient reporting through a secure, cloud-based architecture.

Key Features

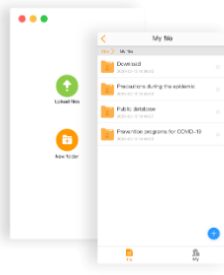

Core Features

Collaborative Management, Attendance Tracking, Data Backup, Data Security, Cloud-based SaaS, Multi-dimensional Reporting

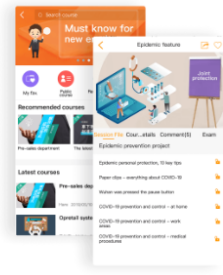

Operational Tools

Intuitive job logging and task tracking interface.

Centralized database for secure document storage and departmental sharing.

Internal staff training platform supporting diverse multimedia course content.

Management Capabilities

- Information distribution for notices and tasks
- Centralized document storage and sharing
- Internal online staff training
- Abnormal condition reporting for stores and devices
- Multi-person and cross-store attendance scheduling

Advantages

Design based on the demands of the retail industry

Advantages

Head Office-Stores-Customers Efficient communication

Stable performance, Long-term storage of the data

Designed specifically to bridge communication between head offices, stores, and customers.

System Advantages

Retail Industry Focused • High Stability • Long-term Data Storage • Efficient Multi-level Communication