

Oil Company Office Building Project

This project involves the construction of an office building. It exemplifies foreign engineering contracting in the construction of significant infrastructure.

Project Overview

Oil Company Office Building Project

This modern skyscraper project showcases expertise in high-rise architectural design and large-scale infrastructure construction. Designed to be a prominent urban landmark, the building features unique structural elements and advanced lighting solutions. It represents a significant achievement in foreign engineering contracting and commercial development.

Technical Capabilities

Contracting Models

- Construction Total Package
- EPC Contract

Service Scope

Civil Engineering, Public Construction, Industrial Construction, Infrastructure Projects

Certifications & Qualifications

Key Licenses

Housing Construction Grade 1 • Foreign Aid Project Level A • Building Decoration Design Special Class B

Specialized Engineering Fields

- Architectural Decoration
- Mechanical and Electrical Installation
- Steel Structure Engineering
- Building Intelligence Engineering
- Curtain Wall Project
- Municipal Utilities
- Fire Control Facilities
- Foundation Engineering

Industry Standing

Global Recognition

225 Rank

World's Largest Contractors