

Petroleum Industry Architectural Elements

These architectural elements are designed for use in petroleum industry facilities. They include flooring and staircases suitable for corporate offices.

Product Overview

Premium Architectural Elements

These architectural elements are designed for high-end industrial and corporate environments within the petroleum sector. Featuring a sophisticated aesthetic, the materials include polished stone surfaces and decorative railings suitable for luxury facilities. The design emphasizes durability and professional presentation, incorporating specific finishing techniques like glazing and bonding for enhanced performance.

Material Properties

Construction Features

- Bonded construction
- Green-certified materials
- High-gloss finish

Surface Finish

Polished, Glazed

Application

Design Aesthetic

Luxury • Ornate • Industrial

Primary Application

Corporate offices and industrial facility interiors