

Maintenance

Maintenance Protocol

The use of high-grade threading oil is highly recommended during operation. Proper lubrication ensures clean thread formation, reduces friction, and significantly extends the service life of dies, tools, and the machine itself.