

Pipe Vice with Integrated Pipe Rest

This pipe vice is designed for securely holding pipes during cutting, threading, or other operations. Constructed from heavy-duty cast iron, this vice features adjustable jaws and an integrated pipe rest for enhanced stability during use.

Product Overview

Professional Pipe Vice

The GL-2206 pipe vice is a robust tool engineered for securely holding pipes during cutting, threading, and other essential operations. Constructed from heavy-duty cast iron, it features a sturdy base with mounting holes designed for stable installation on any standard workbench. The integrated pipe rest provides critical additional support, ensuring accuracy, stability, and efficiency for every task.

Construction & Design

Material	Heavy-duty cast iron
Mounting	Workbench mountable, Integrated mounting holes

Operational Features

Support Features	Integrated Pipe Rest
Clamping Mechanism	Adjustable jaws with smooth-turning screw
Operation	Tommy bar