

Professional Audio Mixing Console

Professional audio mixing console designed for live sound reinforcement and studio recording. It features balanced XLR and 1/4" inputs, phantom power, and comprehensive metering.

Overview

Professional Audio Mixing Solution

This professional audio mixing console is engineered for high-performance live sound reinforcement and studio recording applications. It features a comprehensive array of input channels, precise EQ controls, and versatile aux sends to ensure optimal audio shaping. Built with a focus on reliability, the console provides robust construction and professional-grade connectivity, making it an essential tool for demanding audio environments.

Technical Specifications

Power Features

Phantom Power

Control Features

- Multiple input channels
- EQ controls
- Aux sends
- Master outputs

Input Connectivity

Balanced XLR, 1/4 inch TRS

Monitoring

Comprehensive integrated metering