

Professional Audio Mixing Console

This professional audio mixing console is designed for live sound reinforcement, studio recording, and broadcast applications. It features flexible routing options and comprehensive monitoring capabilities.

Overview

Professional Audio Mixing Solution

This professional audio mixing console is engineered for precision in live sound reinforcement, studio recording, and broadcast environments. It features a comprehensive array of input channels, each equipped with individual gain, EQ, and pan controls for granular signal shaping. Designed with a robust build and an intuitive layout, it ensures reliable performance and ease of operation for demanding audio professionals.

Technical Specifications

Channel Control Features

- Individual Gain Control
- Equalization (EQ)
- Pan Controls
- Precise Faders

Applications

Live Sound, Studio Recording, Broadcast

Connectivity

Routing & Output

- Auxiliary Sends for Effects
- Master Outputs for Amplifiers
- Recording Device Outputs

Design & Build

Construction

Robust Build • Intuitive Layout