

Professional Audio Mixing Console

This versatile audio mixing console is designed for professional sound reinforcement and recording applications. Integrated effects processing with adjustable parameters enhances sonic capabilities.

Overview

Professional Audio Mixing Console

The DFX.10 is a versatile 10-channel audio mixing console designed for professional sound reinforcement and recording applications. It features ultra-low noise circuitry, comprehensive 3-band EQ controls, and integrated digital delay effects to ensure high-quality sonic performance. With robust construction and accurate metering, this mixer is an ideal solution for live performances, studio recording, and broadcast environments.

Connectivity

Input Channels

6 channels

Mono Inputs

2 channels

Stereo Inputs

Input Types

XLR, Balanced TRS, 2-Track Input

Audio Processing

Equalization

- 3-band EQ on all channels
- 2x7 band EQ on main output

Integrated Effects

Digital delay effect system

Technical Specifications

Phantom Power

Yes

Power Voltage

115V / 230V

Physical Dimensions

Dimensions (H x W x D)

450 x 390 x 95 mm

Weight

6.5 kg

Monitoring

Metering

10-segment Bargraph Meters