

Putty Knife with Flexible Blade

This putty knife is designed with a flexible stainless steel blade and an ergonomic handle. It is suitable for applying putty, fillers, and patching compounds on various surfaces.

Product Overview

Professional Grade Putty Application

This professional-grade putty knife features a highly flexible stainless steel blade designed for precision application of putty, fillers, and various patching compounds. Its construction ensures durability and smooth performance, making it an essential tool for surface preparation and finishing tasks in construction and renovation projects. The ergonomic design provides comfort during extended use, helping professionals achieve seamless results on any surface.

Technical Specifications

Blade Width	80 mm
Material	Stainless Steel
Key Features	Flexible Blade, Corrosion Resistant, Ergonomic Design