

Railway Passenger Coach

This passenger coach is designed for railway transportation. It features a comfortable interior and durable construction suitable for long-distance travel and regional rail services.

Overview

Railway Passenger Coach

This railway passenger coach is engineered for reliable and efficient rail transportation. Designed with a distinct exterior featuring a white and green color scheme with red striping, it is built for durability and passenger accessibility. It serves as a robust solution for regional railway transit needs, ensuring consistent performance on the track.

Technical Specifications

Identification Number	9478
Intended Use	Railway passenger transportation

Design & Features

Key Features

- Side passenger access door
- End platforms for boarding
- Integrated suspension system
- Multi-window layout

Exterior Color Scheme	White, Green, Red Stripe
-----------------------	--------------------------