

Retail Point of Sale Terminal

This electronic cash register and point-of-sale (POS) terminal is designed for retail and business automation. It supports cash drawer integration and various payment methods, suitable for small to medium-sized businesses requiring efficient transaction processing and sales data management.

Overview

Professional Retail POS Terminal

This electronic point-of-sale terminal is designed to streamline retail operations and business automation. It features an integrated barcode scanner, a customer-facing display, and a built-in thermal printer for efficient receipt generation. Ideal for small to medium-sized businesses, this system supports seamless transaction processing and reliable sales data management.

Hardware Features

Integrated Components

- Customer display screen
- Barcode scanner
- Alphanumeric keypad
- Thermal receipt printer

Connectivity & Integration

Cash Drawer Compatible, Multi-Payment Support

Application

Best For

Retail • Business Automation • SMBs