

Rice Cooker with Sugar Removal Function

This rice cooker features a sugar removal process for healthier meals. It offers preheating, temperature control, and multiple cooking programs for different rice types and textures.

Product Overview

Health-Focused Rice Cooking Technology

This advanced rice cooker is designed to promote healthier eating habits by incorporating a specialized sugar removal process during cooking. It offers precise control over various cooking stages, including preheating, temperature regulation, and sugar draining, ensuring optimal nutrition and taste. With versatile settings for different rice varieties and textures, this appliance is an essential tool for professional kitchens or health-conscious households.

Cooking Technology

Cooking Process Stages

- Preheating
- Temperature Control
- Water Absorption
- Degumming
- Sugar Draining
- Fluffing
- Completion

Supported Rice Varieties

Short grain, Long grain, Brown rice

Customization

Adjustable Texture Settings

Standard • Fragrant • Soft • Chewy

Functionality

Key Features

- One-click operation
- Intelligent reservation system
- Sugar removal process
- Keep-warm mode