

Self-Service Financial Kiosk

This self-service kiosk is designed for financial transactions and information access. The device features a screen, a card slot, and an output slot.

Product Overview

Professional Financial Self-Service Terminal

This self-service financial kiosk is designed to streamline automated business transactions and information access. Featuring a robust interface with a dedicated screen, integrated card reader, and secure output slot, it facilitates efficient customer service operations. Its distinct orange and gray industrial design ensures high visibility and durability for high-traffic environments.

Physical Characteristics

Key Interface Components

- Display Screen
- Card Reader Slot
- Document Output Slot

Color

Orange, Gray

Operational Features

Primary Application

Financial Transactions • Information Access • Business Automation