

Single Pole Light Switch

This single pole, single throw (SPST) light switch is suitable for controlling a single light fixture from one location. It provides reliable on/off functionality for lighting circuits in residential and commercial applications.

Product Overview

Versatile Single Pole Light Switch

This single pole, single throw (SPST) light switch is designed for reliable control of lighting circuits in both residential and commercial environments. Featuring a modular design, it offers flexible configuration options to suit diverse installation needs. Built with fire-resistant PC plastic, this switch ensures safety and durability while maintaining a clean, white aesthetic suitable for various interior designs.

Technical Specifications

Wiring Features	Large wiring space for easy installation; secure wiring screws designed to remain in place.
Material	Fire-resistant PC plastic
Certifications	CE, CB

Configuration Options

Available Variants

- With light / No light
- With fluorescent particles / No fluorescent particles

Target Markets

Southeast Asia • South America • Europe

Modular Design	Yes
----------------	-----