

Single Red Laser Stage Light

This stage light emits a single red laser beam for visual effects. It has a 100mW laser with a 650nm wavelength.

Product Overview

Professional Stage Lighting

The BS-6001 is a high-performance single red laser light engineered for professional entertainment and stage environments. This versatile unit offers sound-activated capabilities with adjustable microphone sensitivity, allowing for dynamic light shows that sync with music volume. Housed in a robust black enclosure, it provides flexible installation options via an integrated mounting bracket.

Technical Features

Control Options

- Adjustable volume control
- Microphone sensitivity adjustment
- Sound-activated mode

Light Source

Red Laser

Compliance and Safety

Certifications

CE, E-Mark

Physical Attributes

Mounting System

Adjustable bracket for flexible positioning