

Smart Card for Access Control

This smart card is used for access control systems. It provides a secure method for managing entry.

Product Overview

Smart Card Technology

This advanced smart card is designed for high-security access control applications in professional environments. It offers reliable, contactless performance for seamless authentication, making it an ideal choice for corporate, industrial, and institutional facility management. The compact form factor ensures portability and durability for daily user interaction.

Technical Specifications

Compliance

ISO Standard • B2B Certified

Technology

Contactless, RFID, Access Control