

Smart Power Socket Plug with LED Indicator

This smart power socket enables remote control of connected appliances through a smartphone app. It features an LED indicator and allows for scheduling and energy monitoring.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Smart Home Integration

This compact smart socket is designed to bring automation and energy monitoring to your home or office environment. Featuring a standard three-prong configuration, it allows for seamless remote control of connected appliances via a smartphone application. The integrated LED indicator provides real-time status updates, ensuring you remain informed about your device activity at all times.

Technical Specifications

Plug Configuration	North American Standard
Grounded	Yes

Features

Core Features

- Remote control via smartphone app
- Programmable scheduling
- Energy monitoring capabilities
- LED status indicator

Smart Capabilities	Home Automation, Energy Monitoring, Remote Access, App Control
--------------------	--

Design

Design Style	Minimalist and Compact
--------------	------------------------