

Stainless Steel Butter Churner

This stainless steel butter churner features a cylindrical body with a domed lid and a latch mechanism to secure the lid to the body. Equipped with side handles for convenient handling and pouring, it is designed for efficient butter making.

ADDITIONAL IMAGES

Product Overview

Professional Stainless Steel Butter Churner

This durable stainless steel butter churner is designed for both home and commercial applications, blending traditional functionality with modern, high-quality materials. It features a robust cylindrical body with a secure domed lid, ensuring efficient operation and easy handling. With its versatile design, this unit is capable of handling various food processing tasks, including butter and tomato sauce production.

Design & Construction

Handling

- Side handles for pouring
- Top handle for lifting
- Yellow accent details on side handles

Material

Stainless Steel

Lid Features

Domed Lid, Handle, Black Gasket Seal, Ventilation Holes

Functionality

Primary Applications

Butter Making • Tomato Sauce Production

Security Features

Front latch mechanism for secure closure