

Street Commuting Hybrid Bicycle

This cross bike is designed for street commuting, featuring a robust frame and front suspension for enhanced comfort. It offers a versatile riding experience, suitable for both paved roads and light trails.

Product Overview

Urban Commuting Excellence

This hybrid cross bike is specifically engineered for the demands of daily street commuting. It combines a robust frame construction with front suspension to ensure superior comfort across diverse urban surfaces. Designed for versatility, this bicycle performs reliably on paved roads and light trails, making it an excellent choice for both professional commutes and weekend recreational use.

Key Features

Performance Capabilities

- Front suspension system for shock absorption
- Multi-speed drivetrain for terrain versatility
- Durable tires optimized for urban grip
- Sturdy frame for daily reliability

Primary Applications

Street Commuting, Urban Riding, Light Trails, Daily Transit

Design and Build

Frame Design

Robust hybrid geometry

Suspension Type

Yes